

Waukon is located in scenic Northeast Iowa, a community of 4,200 friendly people.

We are the home of a growing business and service oriented community. Surrounded by beautiful rolling hills and a thriving agricultural landscape.

Our business and service community includes an energetic downtown with many family-owned businesses and agricultural based enterprises serving the greater Waukon area.

Waukon is home to a variety of well kept churches of various denominations. You will find many civic organizations for all ages.

As the county seat, the Allamakee County Courthouse is located in Waukon as well as the Allamakee County Fairgrounds. The Fairgrounds plays host to many events throughout the year.
